MONTEVALLO HIGH SCHOOL

Montevallo, Alabama

"Building Dimensions"

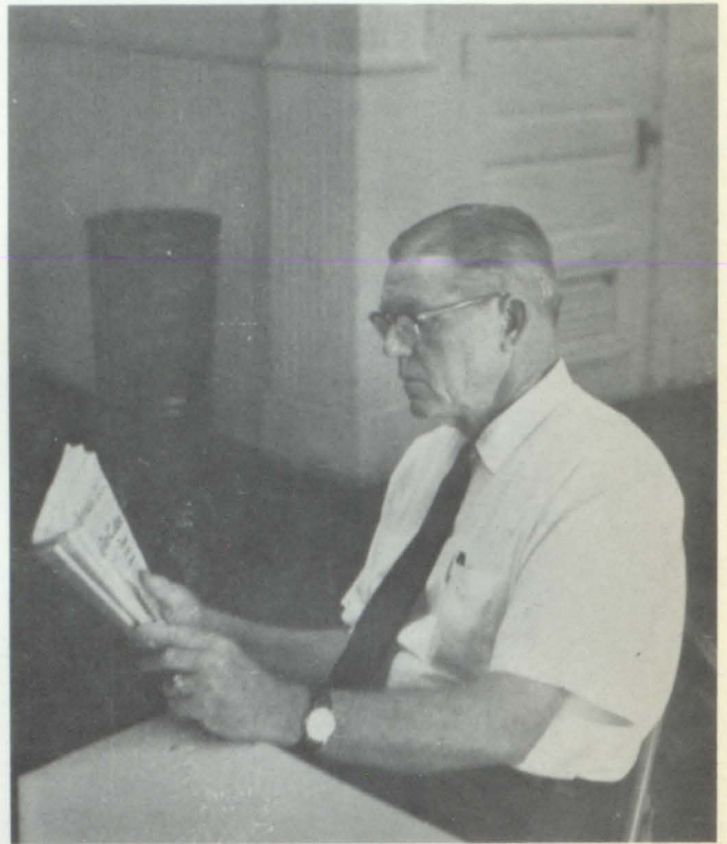

School is made of many dimensions: a line, a plane, a cube, and time as years come and go. However, these four—length, width, height, and the imaginary time—aren't all. Basic dimensions form only empty buildings.

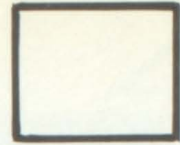

Building From The Base

It takes people—students and adults alike—adding their talents to supply the necessary quality of feeling that a school develops as the years go by.

Faculty, the basis, is the line which forms a foundation on which to build. The administration provides the skills necessary to maintain school functions while they—with the faculty—teach, lead, and direct school affairs and participate in many educational related activities.

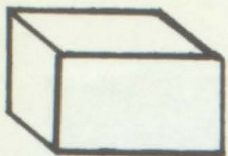

Most teachers have clubs and homerooms to sponsor. Many hold positions in PTA and all attend regular faculty meetings and take part in related in-service studies. Coaches spend additional hours developing skills and character among athletes at M.H.S. while others supplement their school responsibilities participating in outside activities. Church ministry and music, private teaching, studying, "tinkering," and membership in state and local organizations are but a few of the many endeavors in which Montevallo teachers engage.

Students make a school and add still another dimension to the basic line laid by the faculty. Beginning in Montevallo as seventh graders, students move through six years of active school life. Academic work, field trips, study time, athletic events, and concerts mark but a few of the many facets of the daily program.

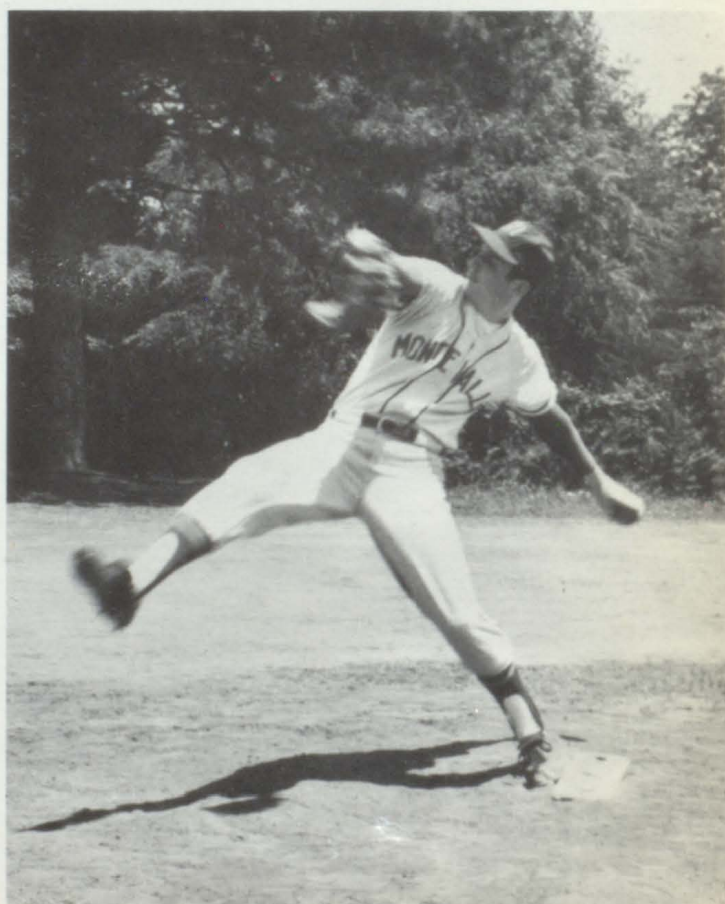

Adding To The Total

Supplying depth to the total school picture, sports hustle in the third dimension. Excitement, joy, disappointment—all are an integral part of sports. Victory and defeat are meted out daily as students compete in P.E. and on the varsity playing field.

School Picture

Activities sound a new chord in the school's song, bringing in the human element. This dimension may be as simple as a friendly chat in the hall or as exciting as a big date for the Prom.

Activities produce the feeling that makes M.H.S. "something special." The sounds they make range from the quiet of the library to the patriotic pledge; from the moving Alma Mater to the shrill yells of a football crowd.

ADMINISTRATION

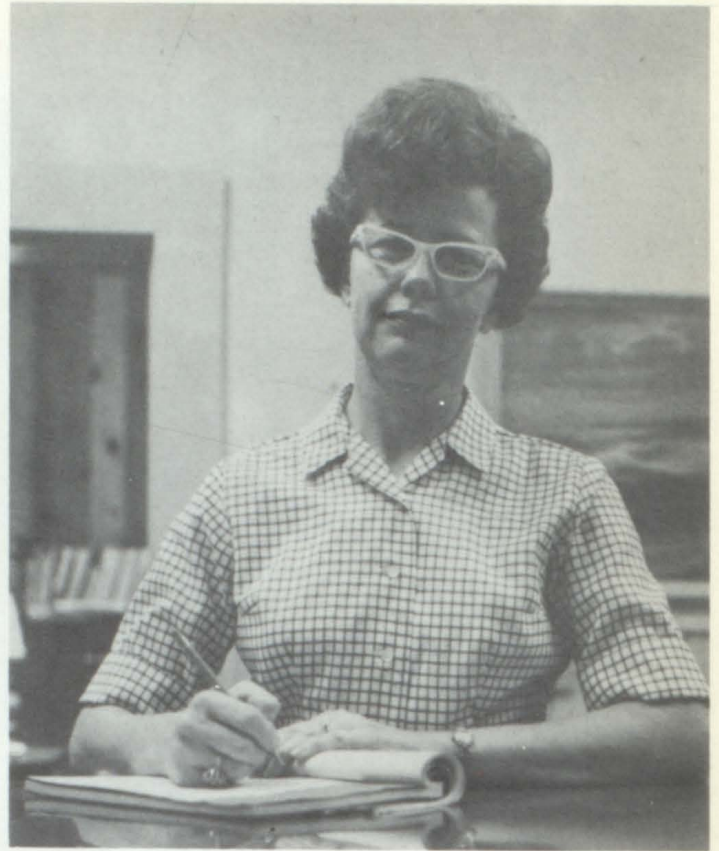

G. MILFORD
PRINCIPAL

Service could be called the "key" word in describing the many duties of Montevallo's principal, Mr. Guy Milford. Serving first at M.H.S. as a teacher and then as principal and director Mr. Milford coordinates the many activities of both the junior and senior high schools.

MR. CRATIE CORBETT

MRS. MARTHA McCLURE

The center of all school activities is the office and most school activities are given the clearance signal from assistant principal, Mr. Cratie Corbett. Mr. Corbett also serves as school guidance counselor and is senior boys' sponsor. Classroom contact is maintained by Mr. Corbett in the teaching of democracy. He also is head basketball coach and during the '67-'68 year served as baseball director. Mrs. Martha McClure is school secretary. Her responsibilities in the office include keeping straight some 558 school accounts and records.

County Tuition lines seem never-ending.

SCHOOL MAINTENANCE: Big job for Mr. Ivey Sims. Serving as maintenance man for Montevallo's school, Mr. Sims checks with students and teachers to keep up to date on needs within the buildings. Grounds also come under his scrutiny as he moves over the school area.

MR. IVEY SIMS

Helping maintain the students are the lunchroom personnel who work under the direction of Mrs. Gwendolyn Mitchell.

Mr. Harvey Riffe, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Edwards work together to prepare meals for M.H.S. students.

MRS. BETTY YANCEY

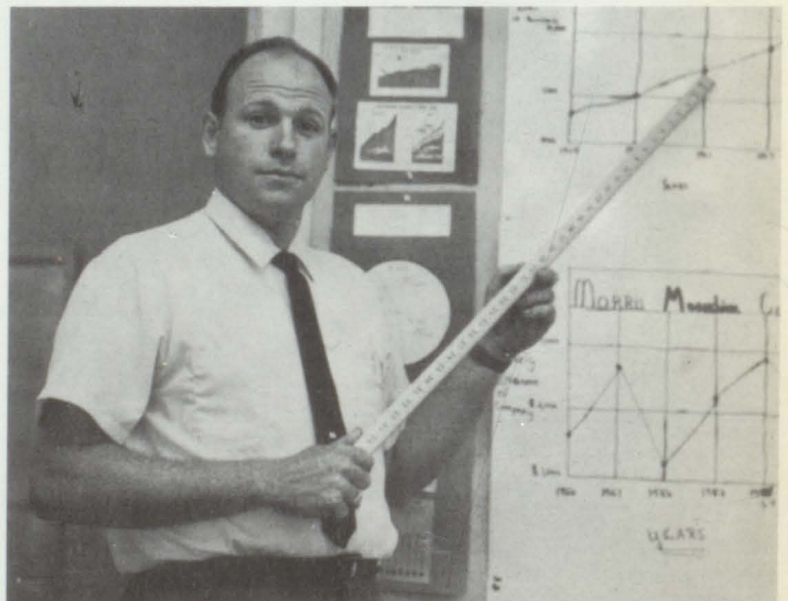

By Working Together Teachers Unify

Many specialties join together to provide an education for the student at M.H.S. Girls receive training in physical education from Mrs. Betty Yancey while library skills are learned from Mrs. Anne Milford, school librarian. Mr. Doug Morris teaches junior high math and also teaches algebra in the senior high.

MRS. ANNE MILFORD

MR. DOUG MORRIS

Total School Program

Mrs. Gail Arnold came to M.H.S. at mid-term to teach in the areas of science and math. Mrs. Bonnie Fisher serves as library aid while Mr. Leroy Anthony works with junior high students in the fields of English and history.

MRS. BONNIE FISHER

MR. LEROY ANTHONY

MR. WAYNE McCULLAR

MRS. BARBARA BELISLE

Varied Interests But Common Theme: Education

Serving as junior class sponsors during the year were two newcomers to M.H.S., Mrs. Barbara Belisle and Mr. Wayne McCullar. In addition to homeroom responsibilities Mrs. Belisle teaches senior history, while Mr. McCullar teaches senior science. Special reading teacher is Mrs. Ann Parker. Montevallo's senior math teacher is Miss Katherine Farrington.

MRS. ANN PARKER

MISS KATHRYN FARRINGTON

MRS. CAROLYN EDFELDT

MRS. HAZEL SHARP

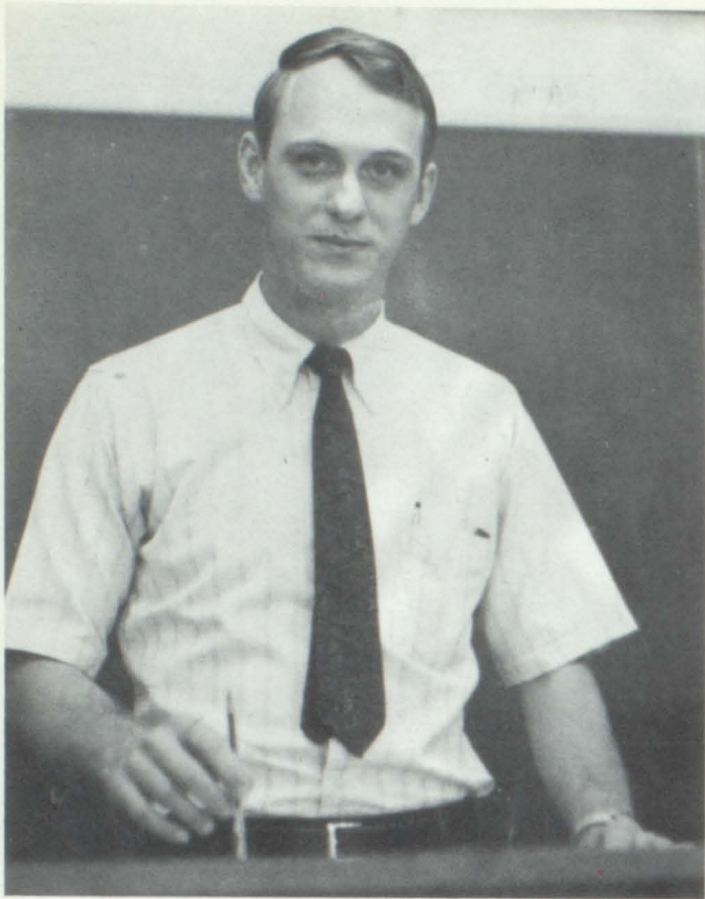

Journalism teacher and English teacher is Mrs. Carolyn Edfeldt. Latin is taught to Montevallio students by Mrs. Hazel Sharp while Mr. Melton Thornton specializes in agriculture for boys at M.H.S. Girls receive training in home economics from Mrs. Rebecca McGaughy.

MR. MELTON THORNTON

MRS. REBECCA McGAUGHY

MR. BILL NORTON

Faculty Contributions

Just as teachers work together to unify the school program they also strive to bring out the best in the students' efforts. Reaching toward this goal are history teacher, Mr. Bill Norton; band and choral director, Mrs. Doris Lien; and phys. ed. and driver training teacher, Mr. Charles Martin. Once a year, stu-

Appear In Student Achievements

Student achievements are recognized as students assemble for the annual "Awards Day." Directing this program is Miss Susie DeMent, business education teacher.

All "A" scholars display academic letters.

MRS. FRANCES ANTHONY

Seventh Grade Opens Door To New Experiences

Seventh grade homeroom teachers introduce students to a new way of life when they come to M.H.S. Orientation programs, participation in new events, and specialized classes begin. In addition to homeroom sponsorship Mrs. Frances Anthony teaches history and English, Mrs. Carolyn Tolbert teaches English and French, and Mrs. Emily Pendleton is science teacher.

MRS. CAROLYN TOLBERT

MRS. EMILY PENDLETON

MISS VINNIE LEE WALKER

For many years, just as seventh grade experiences have marked the beginning of life at M.H.S. for students, English with Miss Walker has been one of the highlights of Senior High experiences. Coming to M.H.S. in 1928 after graduation from Athens College, Miss Walker began her career as a junior-high teacher. Continuing with her academic work, she earned an M.A. at Peabody College and did additional graduate work at Teacher's College, Columbia University, New York City. In 1947 she began working with Seniors and has served as senior sponsor since that time.

STUDENTS

SENIORS CLIMAX YEAR OF ACTIVITY WITH GRADUATION

Finishing up 12 years of school life, seniors began the 1967-68 school term by electing officers to guide them during their final year at M.H.S. Elected to top positions were Judy Draper, President; Steve Arledge, Vice-President; Waltraud Molgedei, Secretary; and Susan Crowe, Treasurer. Highlights of the year included participation—many times in leadership roles—in such school events as Homecoming, the Christmas Dance, the selection of Miss Valentine, and finally—graduation.

JUNIORS SELL MAGAZINES AND FETE SENIORS

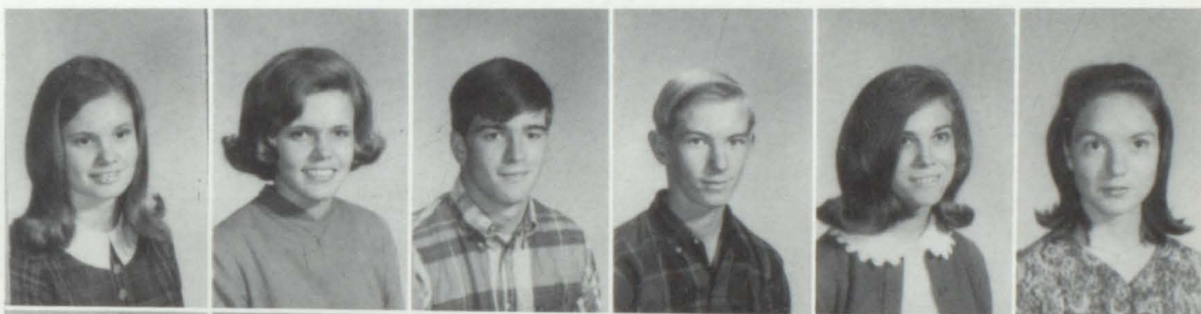

Magazine sales by the junior class have become a tradition at M.H.S. just as their Spring dance for seniors is an annual event. 1967-68 was no exception as seniors were entertained in true "Southern" style at the April Dance.

Gridironers Play A

- I. Vincent's Yellowjackets struck late but won, although Ed Simpson-to-Bill-Nathews' 50-yard pass, plus a Vincent fumble, gave the Bulldogs a 13-0 lead in the season's first game. Two late drives, in the second and fourth quarters, squeezed the 'Jackets by the 'Dogs to a 14-13 win.
- II. Defense was the key to Montevallo's 13-6 win over Chelsea as the Bulldogs grabbed a 13-0 lead on a pass from Ed Simpson to David Bennett and the good running by Simpson, Jimmy Brown and Wayne Majors. With only forty seconds left on the clock, Chelsea scored on a 52-yard pass to account for their six points.
- III. At Siluria on Sept. 22, a great defensive effort against Thompson Warriors by the Bulldogs finally broke. In the last quarter, the Warriors scored three touchdowns to win 25-0. Until the fourth quarter, the only Thompson score had been a 71-yard punt return in the second quarter.

- IV. Explosive Clanton Tigers had everything their way when they met the Bulldogs. Despite the brilliant defensive job by Jimmy Brown—two interceptions and a near third—Clanton scored five times to win 33-0.
- V. MHS Bulldogs scored within the first three minutes of the '67 Homecoming Game, Oct. 6. Thomas Nix recovered Jemison's fumble on the 50-yard line, and Ed Simpson capped the drive by crossing from the ten. The Panthers, however, dominated play for the rest of the game, winning 40-7.

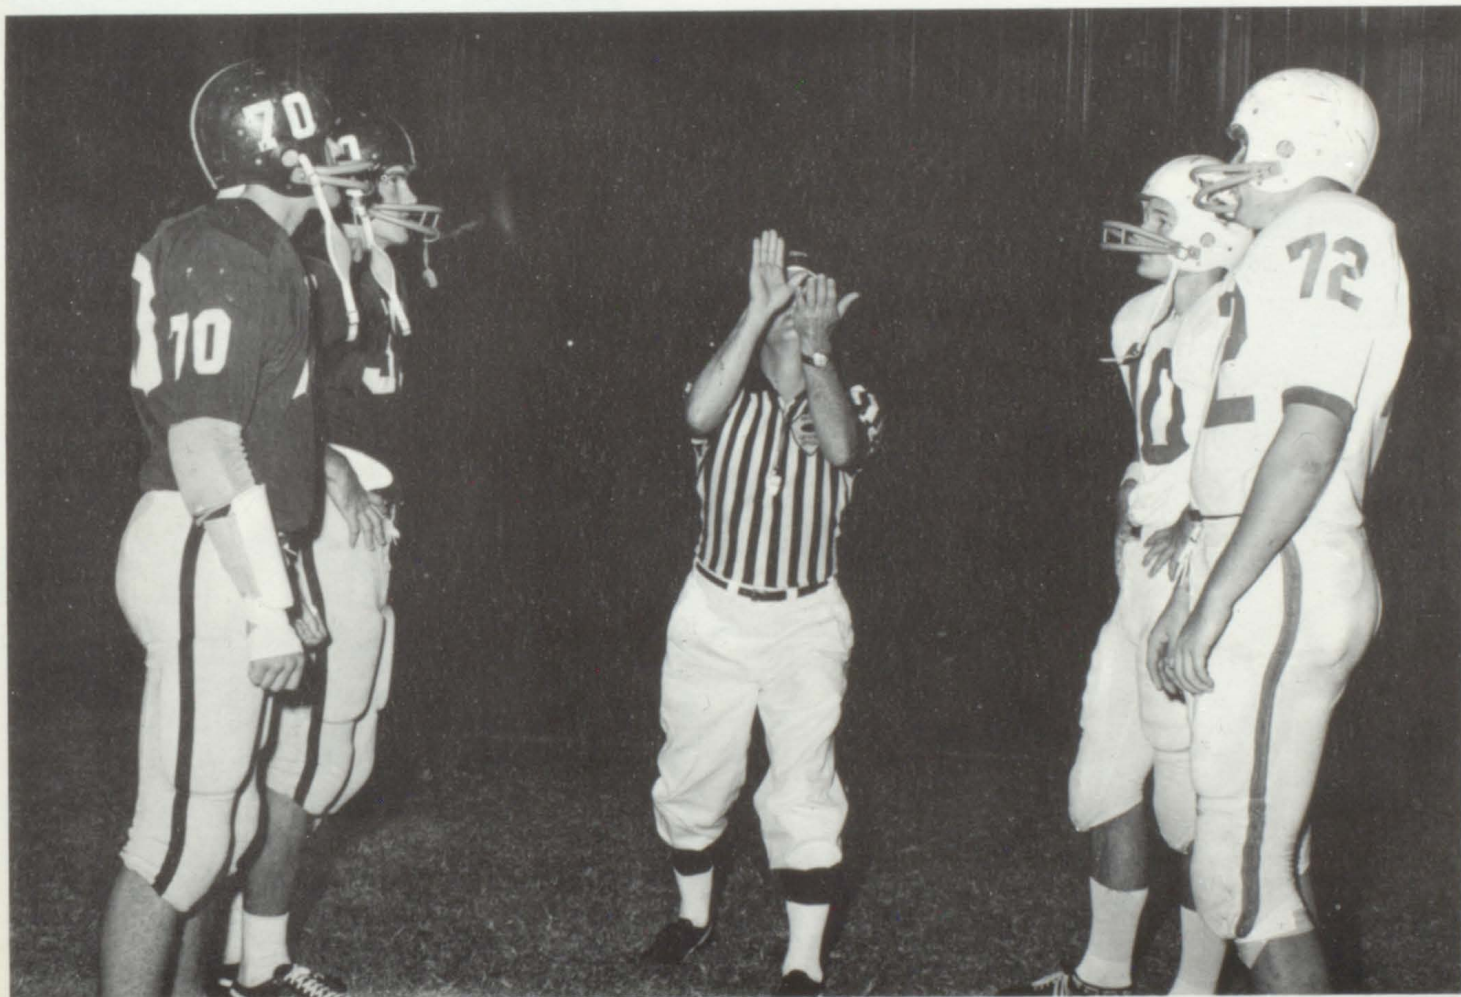

Bulldogs pictured below are J. Brown, B. Reynolds, T. Nix, D. Payne, J. Jackson, J. Lovelady, D. Bennett, B. White, E. Simpson, B. Morris, D. Wyatt, M. Guthrie, B. Frye, M. Nix, B. Nathews, F. Lightfoot, R. Goggins, B. Scott, W. Moore, Roger Bice, W. Majors, B. Taylor, S. Allen, K. Mahaffey, M. J. Otts, G. Payne, G. Martin, D. McGaughy, J. Miller, G. Muehlbauer, T. Pickett, S. Winslett, R. Haynie, T. Middlebrooks, G. Richardson, R. Bearden, T. Harris, T. Polk and H. Martin.

Tough Schedule

- VI. Montevallo almost snatched victory out of the hands of the B. B. Comer's Tigers at their Homecoming Game. Bruce Reynolds set the Bulldogs up in business when he recovered a Comer fumble on the Tigers' five-yard line to tie the score. Both teams tallied another score, to hold the tie, until the final Tiger TD on a 33-yard run put the score to 21-13, Comer.
- VII. Chuck Walton, of Columbiana, was the big difference in a 33-7 decision over the Bulldogs in their seventh game. He scored 20 points for the Shelby County team while Montevallo's tally came in the third quarter following a 55-yard drive. Jimmy Brown capped the effort with a ten-yard run. Ed Simpson kicked the extra point.
- VIII. For the second week in a row, Montevallo faced a big county opponent in Mike Coshatt of Calera. He ran and passed for four touchdowns while leading the Eagles to a 54-20 win over Montevallo. Jimmy Brown started the Bulldog scoring in the third quarter with an 85-yard kick-off return. Thomas Nix added 6 in the fourth period and Brown wrapped up M.H.S. scoring with a 37-yard run.
- IX. In drenching rain on Blocton ground, Montevallo couldn't hold the Tigers as five Blocton players scored one touchdown each for a 31-0 decision over the Bulldogs.
- X. Three seniors playing their last high school game—Jimmy Jackson, Thomas Nix, and Ed Simpson—led Montevallo to a 33-7 romp over the visiting Oak Grove Tigers. Dominating the play throughout the game all Bulldog members saw action during the final contest.

Co-Captains Ed Simpson and Donnie Payne await the coin toss at Homecoming.

Benchwarmers Treat Football Team To Steak Supper

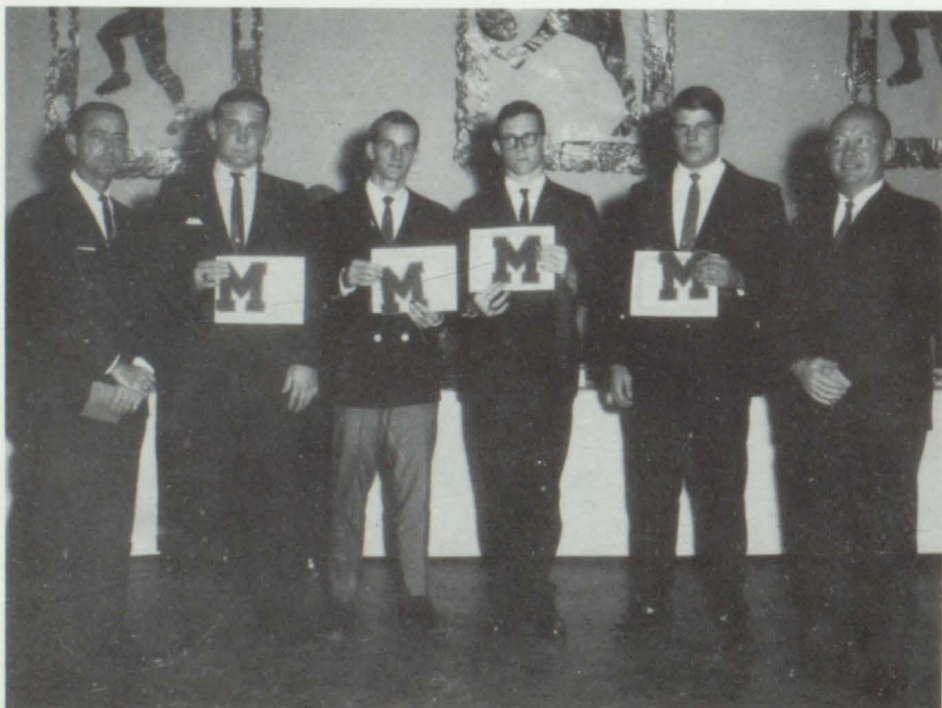

Cheerleaders sing the Alma Mater.

Montevallo supporters, the Benchwarmers, closed out the '67 season for the footballers with a real treat—a steak supper served up in the high school lunchroom. Special guests included the cheerleaders, their sponsor, Mrs. Yancey, and Miss DeMent.

Basketball Team Compiles 9-14 Season

This year's Bulldog squad, one of the youngest Coach Corbett has fielded since coming to M.H.S. in 1955, ended the season with a 9-14 record in play against 3-A and 4-A schools.

Junior Eddie Lovlady was the season's standout as he scored 41 points against West Blocton to set a new school record. Averaging 23.3 points a game Eddie scored 547 for the season and was named to the All-Conference, All-County and Regional tournament teams.

Senior cagers were Dennis Larkins, Wayne Nichols, and Ed Simpson. Simpson was also named for the Regional Tournament honor.

Montevallo's "B" team—which included five members from the eighth and ninth grades—ended the season with a 5-14 record.

Wayne Nichols Leads Baseball Team Through Winning Season

1968 was a big year in baseball. The Bulldogs finished with a 9-4 record, the Shelby County championship, and third place in the Mid-State Conference.

In his first year as baseball coach was Cratie Corbett. He was assisted during the season by Wayne McCullar. Seniors on the squad were Steve Arledge, Dennis Larkins, and Wayne Nichols.

Wayne Nichols had a big season as he was named to the State All-Star team for the second year. Following the June All-Star game Wayne signed for a full year athletic scholarship at the University of Alabama.

Prospects for the 68-69 season include Jimmy Brown and David Bennett who both represented Montevallo at the East-West Game in Clanton.

Service: The Chief Aim of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Serving the school through publishing the yearbook, awarding honor roll ribbons, and providing baby sitters for parents during Parent-Teacher Association meetings, the National Honor Society is one of the busiest senior high organizations. Highlights of the organization's '67-'68 year were candy sales, the initiation, and an end of year covered dish supper. Officers are Thomas Cannon, President; Judy Smitherman, Vice-President; Ellen Scott, Secretary; and Judy Draper, Treasurer.

Yearbook staff members were Thomas Nix, Editor-in-Chief; Thomas Cannon, Sports Editor; Anita Mahaffey and Sherry Anderson, Activities Editors; Betty Jane Barclay and Renee Van Tuyll, Feature Editors; Judy Smitherman and Nellie Gray Strother, Advertising Editors; Susan Crowe and Cheryl McClure, Administration Editors; Judy Draper, Business Manager; and Judy Kay Holsomback and Ellen Scott, Class Editors.

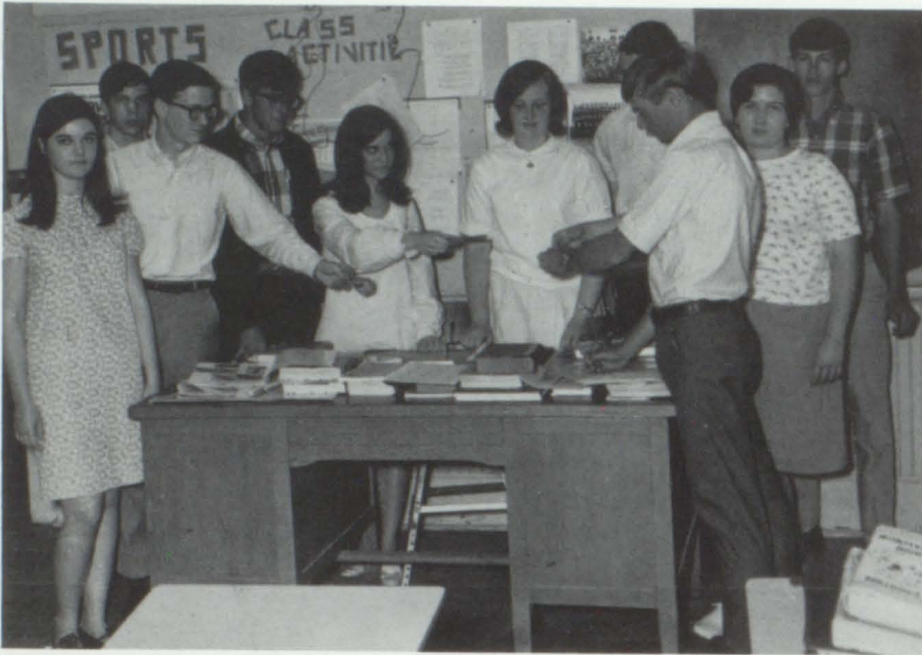

Working with the Honor Society in producing the Montana '68 were Joe Miller, photographer (9th grade) and Mac Clark, cover designer (M.H.S. alumnus). Sponsor for the group is Mrs. Emily Pendleton.

Student Council Has Busy Year Under Guidance

Serving in his first year as Student Council sponsor, Coach Corbett got off to a busy start as Homecoming activities got under way early in the school year. Working with President Thomas Nix, the organization also began a new project during the 67-68 year—the purchasing of a new flag pole. The group also continued with the operation of the school supply store and helped coordinate school-wide assemblies. One of the largest undertakings for the year was the sponsoring of the local Easter Seal campaign.

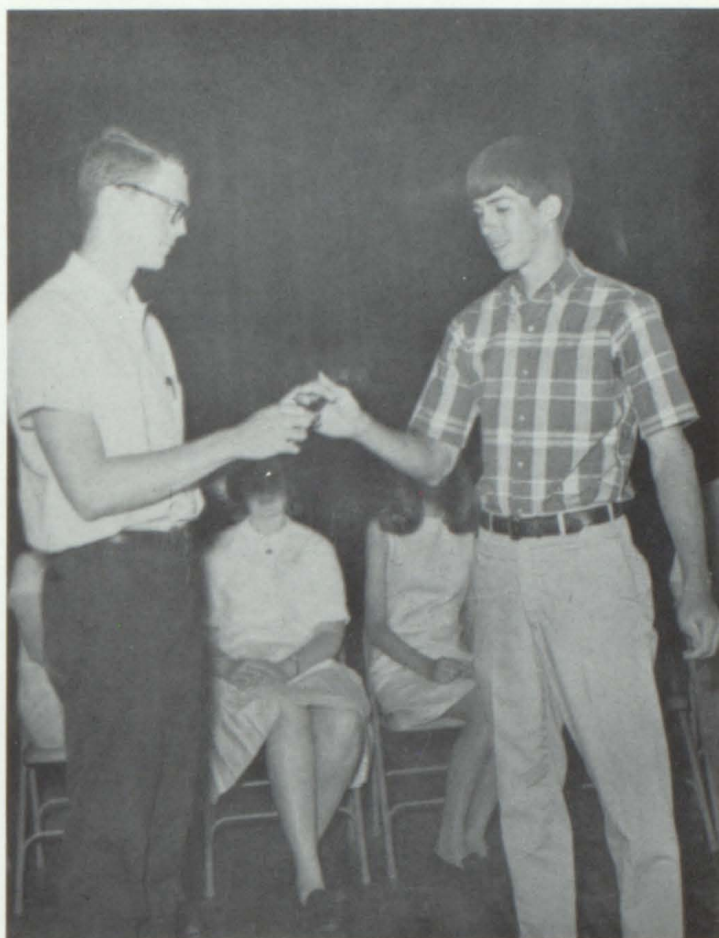

Steve Arledge receives flag pole money from members J. Corbett, J. McCulley, T. Cannon, D. Bennett, J. Birdsong, T. Jackson, T. Nix, J. Smitherman, and J. Brown.

SPOTLIGHT

1967-1968

With the passing of another year, SPOTLIGHT has again soared to new heights. Not only has she maintained her All-American rating from National Scholastic Press Association for the fourteenth straight semester, but she has also been awarded first place in her class by the Alabama High School Press Association.

But the topping came when SPOTLIGHT was entered—for the first time—for judging with Columbia Scholastic Press Association. SPOTLIGHT received the Medalist rating—the top award given in each category to the top entry in that competition. SPOTLIGHT was the only paper in Alabama to claim Medalist.

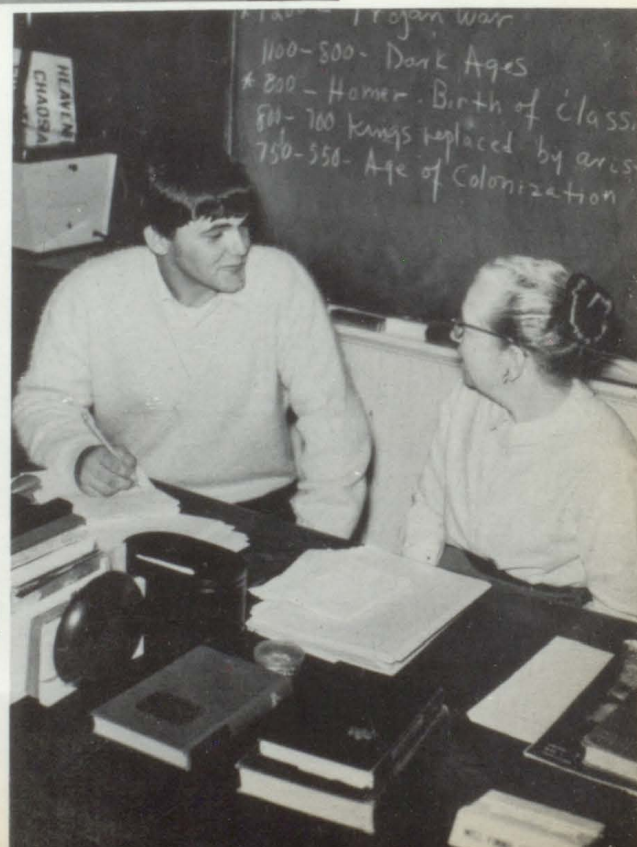

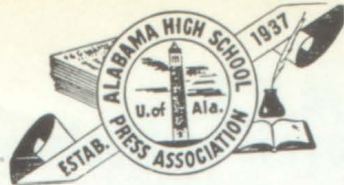

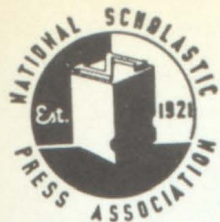

(left) Polishing SPOTLIGHT trophies is becoming a larger task each year, but advisor Mrs. Carolyn Edfeldt and staffer Cathy Nix do not mind a bit.

Editor Judy Kay Holsomback (sitting) goes through past volumes of SPOTLIGHT as staffers (L-R) J. Birchfield, T. Cannon, B. Mobley, T. Nix, C. Nix, and M. Spears look on.

Cheerleaders Have Busy Year

School always begins early for Montevallo's cheerleaders as they practice during "vacation" time perfecting routines and techniques that annually win ribbons during summer clinics. As school opens, this group is prepared to attend all football and basketball games and when spring rolls around, is ready to sponsor a "clinic" of their own for Montevallo students interested in gaining a spot on the team. Group sponsor is Mrs. Betty Yancey. During 67-68 she was assisted by Mrs. Martha McClure—mother of head cheerleader Cheryl McClure.

DAR Good Citizenship Girl Judy Draper shows "how to" pointers for cameraman.

Susan Crowe--Montevallo's entry in the "Search For Excellence."

In its eleventh year at M.H.S., Awards Day traditionally honors achievement of high school students.

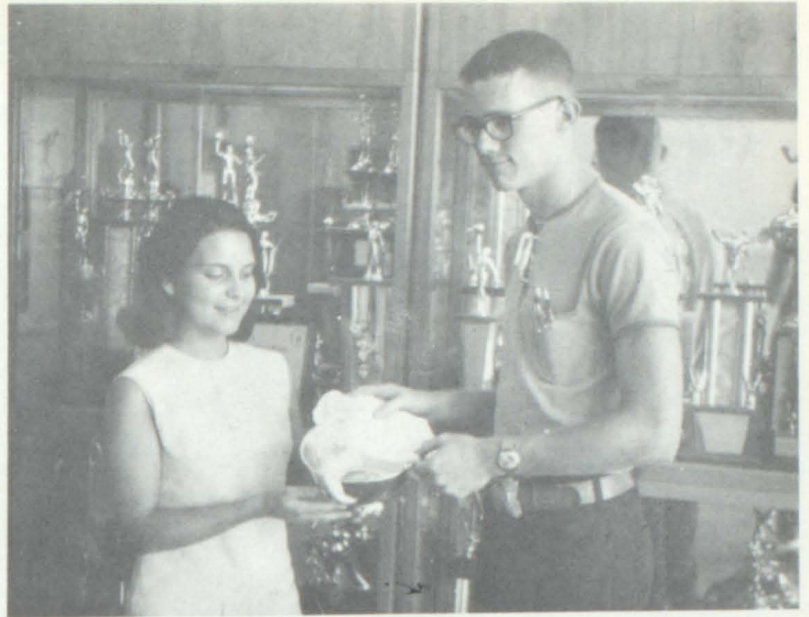

Sandra Cannon receives Band Tour award for Central American Tour.

Beth Anthony, a Youth Power Congress Representative and Shelby County Beef Cook-off winner stirs up some "secret" ingredients.

Thomas Cannon—winner of State DAR scholarship.

Winner of many Awards Day trophies, Thomas Nix, polishes up his Hi-Y silver bowl while Tri-Hi-Y winner, Sherry Anderson gives approval.

Montevallo's champion typists—Cheryl McClure and Waltraud Molgedei.

Judy Smitherman—representative to Girl's State—'67.

Betty Crocker Homemaker winner, Carol Lagrone, arranges floral bouquet.

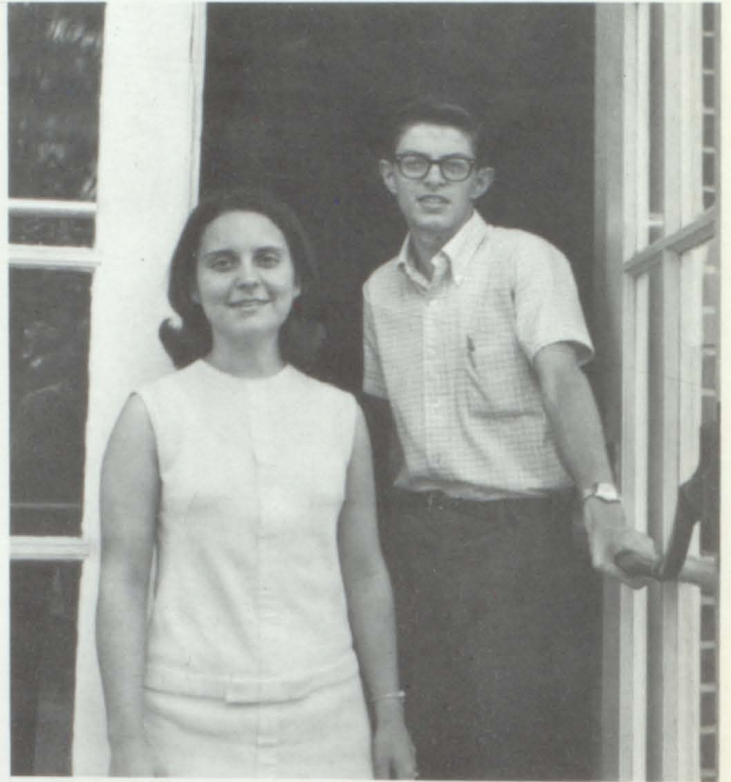

Important Part of Senior's Life: Selection

Each Spring, seniors gather together to select their elite. This year, choices were made in fourteen categories.

Best Dressed, Steve Spears and Debbie Pack do some final "mirror checking."

Most Athletic, Debbie Bearden and Wayne Nichols watch as Most School Spirit Winners, Susan Crowe and Donnie Payne root for M.H.S.

Most Courteous seniors at M.H.S. are Sherry Anderson and Dennis Larkins.

Friendliest seniors, Elree Price and Sandra Hodges chat with Best Looking senior, Carol Alexander.

of Who's Who

M.H.S. Welcomes Her Alumni: Students Help

Using the theme POP '67 (Pounce On Panthers) Montevallo students and alumni gathered together for two days of festivities in early October. The class of '42 used the occasion for a "special reunion."

Thursday night's big bonfire gets a helping hand to open festivities.

Cheerleaders get everybody in the "spirit" of things. Poor Panther looks on.

Student Council President Thomas Nix presents Queen Donna the traditional roses.

'66 Queen Lucile Lovelady returns for the crowning ceremony.

Traditional Court Pose

The Queen of Hearts:
MISS VALENTINE—68

Each year, the selection of Montevallo's Miss Valentine has become tradition. At a dance sponsored by the band, a group of out of town judges select the girl they think most fits the description of having both beauty and poise. This year, an outstanding senior girl, Miss Cheryl McClure, was selected.

Miss Valentine of '67—Adelle Simpson—places crown on 68's reigning beauty—Cheryl McClure.

Attendants Mary Ellen Lewis, Betty Jane Barclay, Dian Lawler and Tisia Baker pose with Cheryl.

THE HEART

"Coach Fisher"

Winning trophies—a habit.

Coffee "pracally" every day!

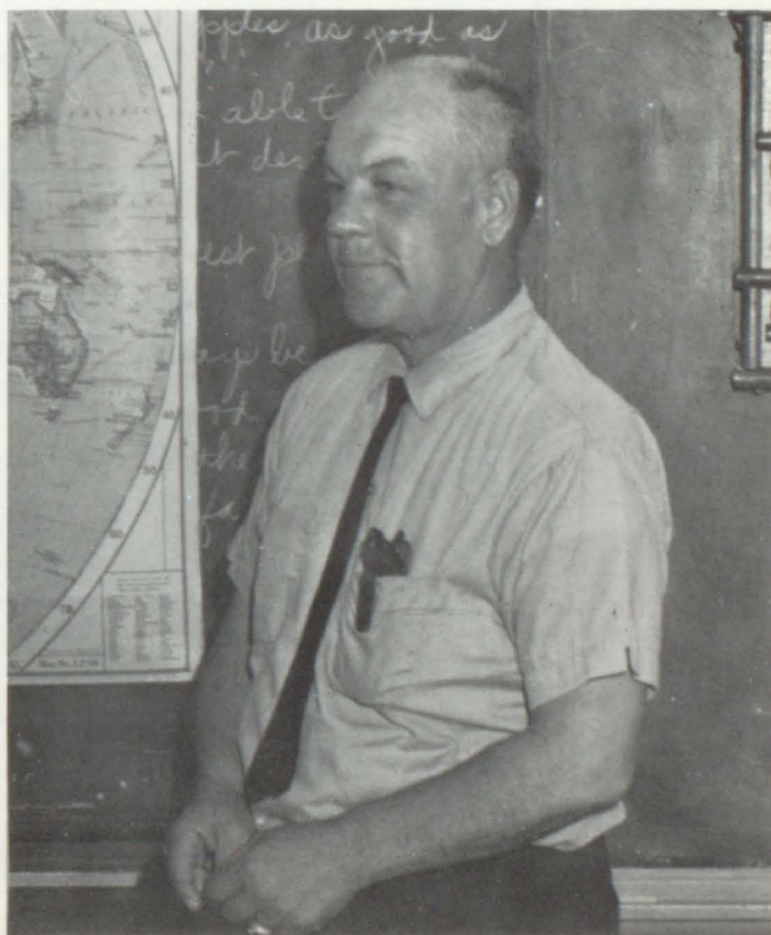

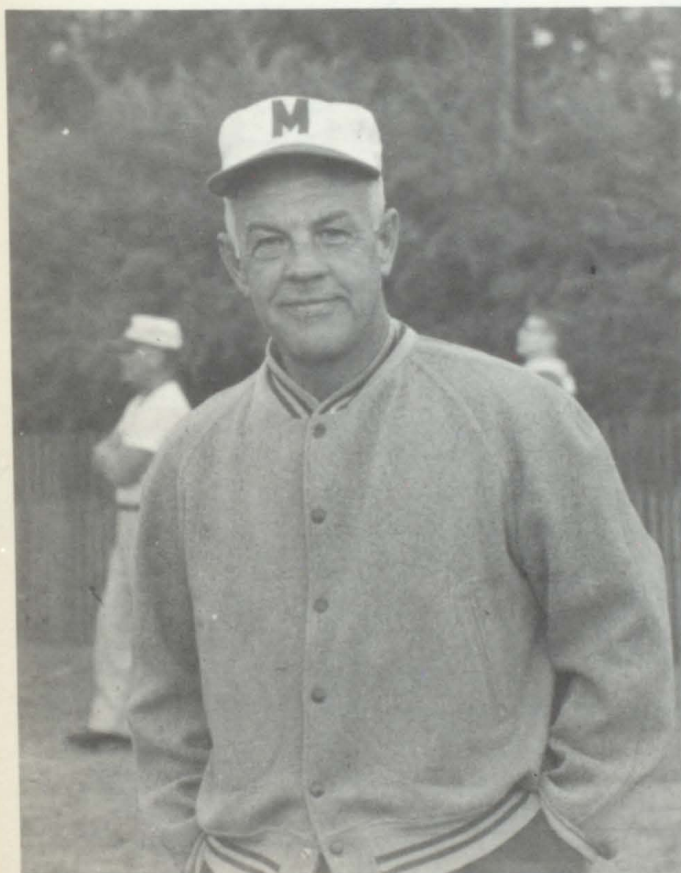

OF A SCHOOL: THE HUMAN ELEMENT

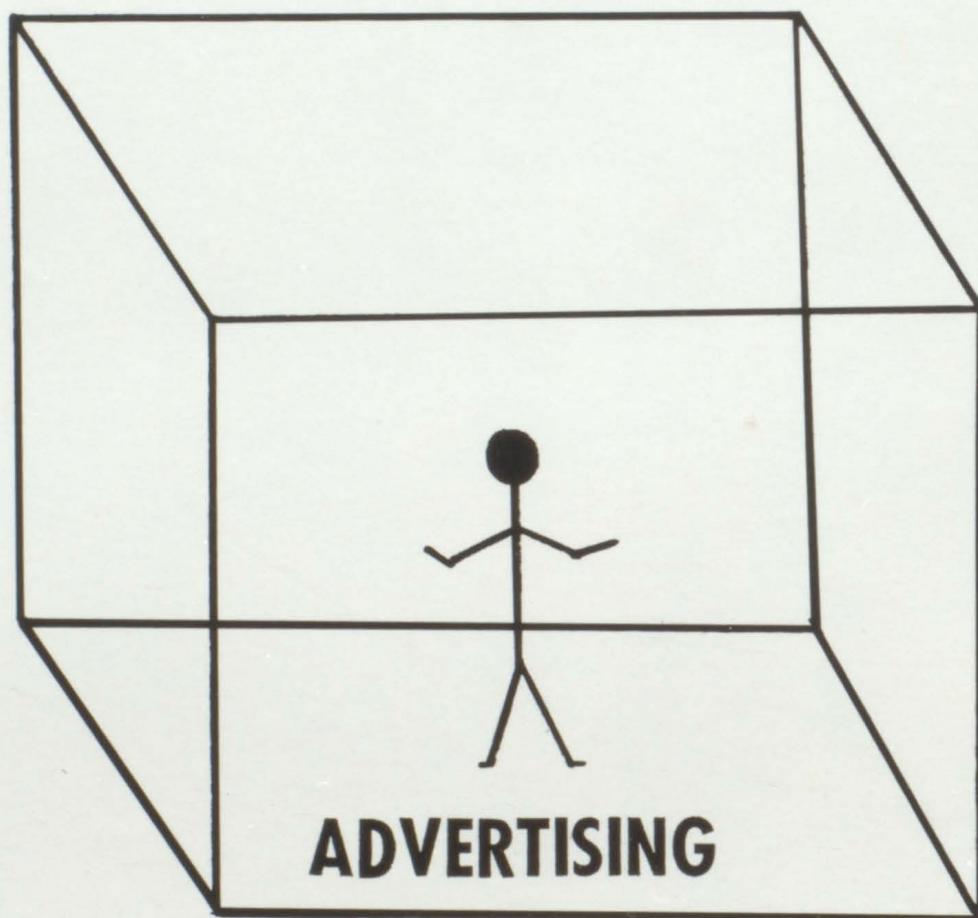

is produced by people in activities and one of the people who gave so much of his time, energy, and heart to M.H.S. was Coach Theron Fisher. A coach of three major sports and athletic director during his last year at M.H.S., Mr. Fisher was also a classroom teacher. Alabama history and civics were his academic specialties while baseball was his chief interest among the athletic skills. Excelling on the diamond, where eighteen winning seasons were recorded, Coach Fisher was noted not only for his winning teams but also for his sportsmanship.

Because of his devotion to M.H.S., we, the Montala staff, dedicate this book in memory of "Coach Fisher."

EPILOGUE

What is time? Can it be measured or really defined? Many consider time the fourth dimension of our lives. We know it is real. We find it working in us, with us, and through us. The human element—like time—moved and grew at M.H.S. this year. We could “feel” the changing times, yet not “touch” them. This is as it should be. People and time must move forward.

I, as editor, would like to extend my thanks to all those people who helped in giving us a record of the dimension and time at M.H.S. this year. Many thanks to the Times Printing Company for their patience and understanding, to Joe Miller for his photography, to Mac Clark for his cover design, and to each teacher and student who helped make MONTALA '68 a reality.

Thomas Nix,
Editor
